HOPKINSVILLE TO HAVE NATIONAL BANK.

The Name "Farmers National."

It has been rumored for sometime that a National Bank would be established in this city, but nothing certain has been learned until now. The capital stock now subscribed is $50,000 and will probably run to $60,000. Mr. Geo. C. Long, will be president; Jas. M. Clark, vice-president;

The new bank will occupy the Gish building at the northwest corner of Ninth and Main streets. It is not known exactly what day the work of arranging the house has altime as possible the new Farmers Na-tional will be ready to serve the peo-ple. The bank, as the name indicates, suiting from the dreadful disease will look especially after the inter-
